CODES OF BEHAVIOUR

The following guidelines have been written to ensure the smooth running of the Partnership Project. These guidelines must be adhered to at all times to ensure the safety of course participants and Animal Welfare League staff and animals.

Guidelines:

1. Exemplary behaviour is expected at all times. Students must be courteous to and show respect towards the course supervisor/s and other Animal Welfare League Refuge staff, animals, members of the public and other students.
2. Students must adhere to OHS procedures as outlined and demonstrated by supervisor/s.
3. Mobile phones to be switched off and not used during session times. Phones may be used in the case of an emergency. If a phone needs to be left on for an expected emergency phone call, the course supervisor/s needs to be made aware of the situation at the beginning of the session.
4. Students must remain nearby the session supervisor/s at all times, especially during sessions in the dog and cat rehoming areas, AWL veterinary clinics and outdoor areas.
5. Students must not run though the Refuge grounds and are required to stay in designated areas at all times.
6. Students are required to keep noise levels to a minimum at all times and refrain from using offensive language.
7. The course supervisor/s has the right throughout the course to separate and change seating arrangements of disruptive students should the need arise.
8. The course supervisor/s has the right at any stage throughout course to modify these rules.

If any child fails to follow these guidelines, the following levels of action will be taken:

- a) Verbal warning (which is documented with AWL Education Director)
- b) Parents/ guardians contacted (if under 18 years)
- c) Elimination from course

PLEASE NOTE: Parents/guardians must be available to collect their child in case of emergency or elimination from the course if child fails to follow AWL guidelines as set out in the above Code of Behaviour

NOTE: Must be filled out by parent or guardian
